

Requirements for the Minor in Comparative Literature:

- Twelve units in Comparative Literature, including at least six units at the 300 level or above. Two of the following introductory courses may be counted toward the minor: Comp Lit 211, 215C – 218C, 241C, 242C.
- Six units of advanced study (300 level or above) in a language other than English.

Requirements for the Minor in Comparative Arts:

- Six units of advanced study (300 level or above) in Comparative Literature, including a course in Comparative Arts.
- Six units of advanced study (300 level or above) in theoretical or historical courses in music, art history, drama, dance, film, or aesthetics. (For students specializing in literature and music, Music Theory III and IV [Music 221 and 222] will fulfill this requirement.)
- Six units of advanced study (300 level or above) in a language other than English.